JR East and MUFG announce Otona-no Kyujitsu (‘Holiday for Adults’) Club Tie-up

Tokyo, June 6, 2006 --- East Japan Railway Company (JR East; President and CEO: Satoshi Seino), Mitsubishi UFJ Financial Group, Inc. (MUFG; President & CEO: Nobuo Kuroyanagi) and MUFG subsidiaries The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd. (President: Nobuo Kuroyanagi), Mitsubishi UFJ Trust and Banking Corporation (President: Haruya Uehara) and Mitsubishi UFJ Securities Co., Ltd. (President & COO: Kimisuke Fujimoto) today reached an agreement on the provision of financial services to JR East’s Holiday for Adults Club, a JR East club for senior citizens.

As a service to club members MUFG group companies have been holding seminars on asset management and contributing a column on financial topics to JR East’s members-only magazine Holiday for Adults. Following today’s agreement MUFG companies will provide a number of new privileged services to club members.

In the future, JR East, and MUFG and its group companies will be considering a broad range of business alliances.

1. Privileges for Holiday for Seniors Club members announced today

   (1) Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ and Mitsubishi UFJ Trust and Banking: Preferential interest rates will be offered to club members.
      1. Eligible account: Super Term Deposit accounts with a term of more than one year and a minimum deposit of ¥5 million.
      2. Branches: The offer will be available at 672 bank branches and 80 trust bank branches of Group companies nationwide (excluding Trust Plaza outlets in the Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ head office and in Nihonbashi, Shibuya, Shirogane and Tokorozawa branches).
      3. Interest rate: The rate displayed in branches + the preferential rate.
         The preferential interest rate is applied only to the initial deposit and term. Subsequent deposits and terms will receive interest at the rate displayed in branches (further details will be provided in the club magazine).

   (2) Mitsubishi UFJ Trust and Banking: A preferential system for new testamentary trust handling fees.
      1. Eligible service: Testamentary trusts (Isshin denshin).
      2. Preferred features: A 10% discount on the Will document handling fee for new testamentary trusts.
      3. Effective start date: Scheduled for September 1, 2006.

   (3) Mitsubishi UFJ Securities: New customers requesting consulting services for securities (equities, bonds, etc.) at branches will be presented with complimentary copies of a book of shareholder privileges (effective start date is scheduled for September 1, 2006).
      *A brochure based on the Japan Company Handbook shareholder privileges information booklet, providing compact and easy to understand information.

2. Regarding future comprehensive business tie-ups

JR East, and MUFG and its group companies will consider broader business tie-ups related to the Holiday for Seniors Club aimed at leveraging to the maximum their respective products, services and expertise. These are expected to include services and financial products developed specifically for club members and information delivery methods will also be considered, including the use of websites, etc.

*   *   *