MUFG and Morgan Stanley Update Plans for Securities Joint Venture in Japan

TOKYO, November 18, 2009—Mitsubishi UFJ Financial Group, Inc. (“MUFG”) (NYSE: MTU) and Morgan Stanley (NYSE: MS) today announced further plans to integrate their securities operations in Japan. In view of the recent trends in the global financial regulatory environment and in order to optimize the parties’ ability to leverage their respective strengths and networks, the parties are pursuing a joint venture structure involving two entities:

- (1) The first entity, Mitsubishi UFJ Morgan Stanley Securities Co., Ltd. (“MUMSS”), is expected to include the wholesale and retail businesses of Mitsubishi UFJ Securities Co., Ltd. (“MUS”) and the investment banking operations of Morgan Stanley Japan Securities Co., Ltd. (“MSJS”).

This entity will be 60 percent owned by MUFG and 40 percent owned by Morgan Stanley and will have five representative directors with Morgan Stanley designating its Chairman, and MUFG designating its President and Chief Executive Officer. MUFG will also name the Deputy President and Chief Executive Officer of the retail and middle markets business, as well as the Deputy President and Chief Executive Officer of the sales and trading business. Morgan Stanley will designate the Deputy President and Chief Executive Officer of the investment banking business.

- (2) The second entity, Morgan Stanley MUFG Securities Co., Ltd (“MSMS”), is expected to include the existing operations of MSJS, excluding the investment banking operations.

While the respective economic interests of MUFG and Morgan Stanley in MSMS are expected to be 60 percent and 40 percent, Morgan Stanley will have a 51 percent voting interest in this entity and MUFG will have 49 percent. The Chairman will be designated by MUFG, and the President and Chief Executive Officer will be designated by Morgan Stanley.

The two joint venture companies will collaborate in a number of business and product areas, including offering Morgan Stanley’s global products and services to retail and middle market customers in Japan.

The companies are now aiming to complete this transaction in May 2010, subject to execution of transaction documentation and approval by regulatory authorities. The integration plans announced today supersede previous announcements with respect to the parties’ joint venture plans in Japan.

Nobuo Kuroyanagi, President and Chief Executive Officer of MUFG, said, “We are pleased with the progress we are making in our global alliance with Morgan Stanley and, through the combination of these two securities companies, we are confident that we can provide the highest quality services to our customers in Japan.”

John J. Mack, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Morgan Stanley, said, “We remain committed to our global alliance with MUFG and are very pleased with the level and quality of collaboration between our two organizations. James Gorman, our next CEO, and I look forward to working together through this joint venture in Japan to realize the attractive growth opportunities in this market.”
