Tokyo, July 27, 2021--- MUFG and MUFG Innovation Partners Co., Ltd. (“MUIP”), a subsidiary of MUFG, today announced that it has established a JPY 20 billion fund called the MUFG Innovation Partners No. 2 Investment Partnership (“No. 2 Fund”).

In January 2019, MUFG established MUIP, a fund management company, to strengthen open innovation through business alliances between MUFG Group companies and FinTech-related startups both in Japan and overseas. MUFG and MUIP established the MUFG Innovation Partners No. 1 Investment Partnership (“No. 1 Fund”), a corporate venture capital fund with a total value of JPY 20 billion.

MUIP has made strategic investments in more than 20 FinTech-related startups in Japan and overseas through the No. 1 Fund, and having established a track record for launching advanced new businesses and services is working to promote collaboration with investees.

Based on the success of the No. 1 Fund, the No. 2 Fund will both continue and further develop its collaborative strategy between MUFG and FinTech startups as well as cultivate new areas for investment, including ESG/SDGs, and a style of open innovation that involves MUFG, startups and MUFG client companies called “Triple Wins.”
