MUFG Awarded Gold and Silver at the Ministry of the Environment's Third ESG Finance Awards Japan

Tokyo, February 28, 2022 --- MUFG Bank, a consolidated subsidiary of MUFG, today announced that it was awarded Gold in the Banking Category at the Third ESG Finance Awards Japan<sup>[1]</sup> (Minister of Environment Award) held today. Mitsubishi UFJ Morgan Stanley Securities was awarded Silver in the Financial Services (Securities) Category. In addition, MUFG was selected as an Environmental Sustainable Company in the Environmental Sustainable Company Category for fulfilling established information disclosure criteria.

MUFG Bank was awarded Gold in the Banking Category for our involvement in international rulemaking for climate transition finance, employment of diverse human resources, and establishment of effective governance systems among other activities.

Mitsubishi UFJ Morgan Stanley Securities was awarded Silver in the Financial Services (Securities) Category for issuing Japan's first transition bond and for its efforts to develop the market for financing through securitization transactions among other activities.

MUFG defines its purpose as “committed to empowering a brighter future” and is working to resolve issues faced by our customers and all other stakeholders in order to realize a sustainable environment and society. MUFG will continue to contribute to the resolution of environmental and social issues by supporting the ESG initiatives of our customers and encouraging sustainable growth.
